Second Annual Meeting of Child Health Services Researchers: The Role of Partnerships

Held in conjunction with the AHSR 2000 Annual Meeting

Tuesday, June 27, 2000 • 12:30 - 6:00 PM • Los Angeles Marriott • Los Angeles, CA

Purpose:

The theme of the Second Annual Meeting of Child Health Services Researchers is 'The Role of Partnerships.' The meeting will build on the conceptual frameworks outlined at the successful 1999 meeting, identify gaps in knowledge in child health services research (CHSR) and between knowledge and practice in children's health care, and build partnerships between disciplines, settings, methods, and individuals to build the future of CHSR. At lunch, the plenary speaker will challenge meeting participants to work actively on three themes throughout the meeting.

Eight breakout sessions will reflect these themes:

- Getting Started in Child Health Services Research (Track 1)
- Advanced Models and Methods (Track 2)
- Emerging Issues in Children's Health Care (Tracks 3 and 4)

12:30 - 1:45 PM • Plenary Luncheon - Grand Ballroom 1 & 2

Keynote Speaker:

Robert Brook, M.D., Sc.D.

Vice President and Director, RAND Health

"Random Thoughts by a Non-Pediatrician"

2:00 - 3:45 PM • Breakout Session A

Track 1: Starting Your Career in CHSR - Grand Ballroom 3

This session will bring together individuals from a variety of disciplines, who have taken various paths to becoming child health services researchers, to identify promising opportunities and provide career advice.

Organizer: Lisa A. Simpson, M.B., B.Ch., M.P.H.

Deputy Director, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ)

Chair: Lisa A. Simpson, M.B., B.Ch., M.P.H.

Panelists: Ann Beal, M.D.

Center for Adolescent and Child Health Policy, Massachusetts General Hospital for Children

Neal Halfon, M.D.

Professor, UCLA School of Medicine and Public Health

Alan Monheit, Ph.D.

Director, Division of Social and Economic Research, Center for Cost and Financing Studies, AHRQ

Andrew Nelson

Executive Director, Health Partners Research Foundation

Track 2: Advanced Models and Methods, Part 1 - Grand Ballroom 4

This pair of sessions will address advanced methods issues in CHSR such as nested study designs, statistical models for expenditure data, risk adjustment, multi-site studies, and cost-effectiveness research in public programs. The purpose of the sessions is not to teach the methods but to raise awareness of methodological issues in CHSR and discuss appropriate remedies.

Organizers: Christopher Forrest, M.D., M.P.H.

Assistant Professor, Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health

Lawrence C. Kleinman, M.D., M.H.A.

Chief of Health Studies, Lehigh Valley Hospital

Chair: Christopher Forrest, M.D., M.P.H.

Panelists: Allsion Evans, B.A., M.B.A.
Center for Mental Health Services Research, University of California, Berkeley

James M. Perrin, M.D.
Director, Massachusetts General Hospital Center for Child and Adolescent Health Policy

Scott Shipman, M.D.
Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholars program, Johns Hopkins University

Track 3: Social Stratification: Implications for Health Care and CHSR - Concourse Ballroom 1

This session will present the theory of social stratification, its underlying concepts and causal assumptions. Three conceptual models based on the theory will be presented to illustrate uses of the theory to conduct child health and development research, including health services research.

Organizer: Gontran Lamberty, Ph.D.
Chief, Research Branch, Health Resources and Services Administration

Chair: Keith Crnic, Ph.D.
Head, Department of Psychology, Pennsylvania State University

Panelist: Lee Pachter, D.O.
Director of Pediatric Inpatient Service, St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center

Track 4: Adolescent Health Care and Health Services Research - Concourse Ballroom 2

Adolescent health care is seriously underrepresented in child health services research. To begin closing this gap, this session will identify a conceptual framework for thinking about health services research on adolescent health topics, and develop a research agenda.

Organizer: Elizabeth Shenkman, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor, Institute for Child Health Policy

Chair: Gail Slap, M.D.
Rauh Professor of Pediatrics and Internal Medicine

Panelists: Charles E. Irwin, Jr., M.D.
Director and Vice Chairman, Division of Adolescent Medicine, University of California, San Francisco

Jonathan D. Klein, M.D., M.P.H.
Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Community and Preventative Medicine, University of Rochester

John Santelli, M.D., M.P.H.
Assistant Director for Science, National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion

4:15 - 6:00 PM ● Breakout Session B

Track 1: Grantsmanship/Mock Study Session - Grand Ballroom 3

This session will provide overviews of how the grantmaking process works at AHRQ and MCHB, including tips for submitting a fundable application, plus a hands-on mock peer review session in which session participants will have the opportunity to critique and score an actual application (made anonymous).

Organizers: Denise M. Dougherty, Ph.D.
Senior Advisor, Child Health, AHRQ

Jill Joseph, M.D., Ph.D.
Director, Center for Health Services and Clinical Research, Children's National Medical Center

Chair: Denise M. Dougherty, Ph.D.

Panelists: Irene Fraser, Ph.D.
Director, Center for Organization and Delivery Studies, AHRQ

Jill Joseph, M.D., Ph.D.

James M. Perrin, M.D.
Director, Center for Child and Adolescent Health Policy, Massachusetts General Hospital for Children

Track 2: Advanced Models and Methods, Part 2 - Grand Ballroom 4

This session will discuss the integration of CHSR methods with public policy and public programs. To that end we will discuss: assessing guideline use and linking outcomes to performance relative to the guidelines; the integration of effectiveness and cost-effectiveness data: multi-center CHSR studies; and, the use of Medicaid claims data to assess the quality of health care. We will discuss opportunities and limitations using these methods for CHSR.

Ilene Zuckerman, Pharm.D., BCPS
Associate Professor, Center on Drugs and Public Policy, University of Maryland, Baltimore

Track 3: Errors in Children's Health Care - Concourse Ballroom 1

The recent IOM report, and the President's response, have brought major national attention to errors in health care. This session will provide a conceptual framework for thinking about errors in pediatric care, address what we know about errors in children's health care, note gaps between knowledge and practice, and draw implications for how partnerships can enhance the research and practice agendas in pediatric errors.

Organizer: Shirley Girouard, R.N., Ph.D.
Consultant

Chair: Joanne Turnbull, Ph.D.
Executive Director, National Patient Safety Foundation at the AMA

Panelists: Michael Goldberg, M.D.

Director, Center for Child Health Outcomes, Children's Hospital and Health Center

Christopher Lomax, Pharm.D.
Director, Pharmacy and Nutrition Services, Children's Hospital, Los Angeles

Track 4: Translating the Surgeon General's Report on Mental Health on Policy and Practice for Children - Concourse Ballroom 2

The recent Surgeon General's report on mental health once again brought attention to the needs of children with mental health problems. This session will bring together people who will address the implications of this report for children's health care and health services research.

Organizer: Anne Riley, Ph.D.
Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health

Chair: Howard Goldman, M.D., Ph.D.
Professor of Psychiatry, University of Maryland

Panelist: Peter Jensen, M.D.
